

TEACHERS TO SEE WESLEYAN GAME

Association Session Will Adjourn for Contest on Saturday.

BUCKHANNON, W. Va., Nov. 15.—The West Virginia Teachers' Association will hold its annual convention at Charleston this week end. A large number of them, Wesleyan alumni, left northern sections of the state this morning for Charleston. Practically the whole convention, according to reports from the teachers themselves, will consider the convention adjourned next Saturday afternoon, and will attend the football game, which will be played at Laidley Field on Saturday afternoon between West Virginia Wesleyan College and Morris Harvey College.

Laidley Field, Charleston, has been the scene of many important football contests, and this one scheduled for next Saturday bids fair to be as important as any of them. Morris-Harvey, whose rapid rise to athletic power in the state has been the signal for larger schools to awaken, has everything to win next Saturday and nothing to lose. Wesleyan will undoubtedly receive a distinct shock if the southerners should cause the game to go wrong, as early rumors from the state would indicate.

With the teachers' convention and the football game both played up events for the state capital, it follows that many social functions will happen. The state capital usually sets the pace for matters of this kind so, Charleston, with the teachers' convention on hand and a football crowd to stir up the enthusiasm should be treated with a week end of highly colored snap and zip.

The Wesleyan College team flushed with three victories in a row, and that of last Saturday over the Army team, one of the most important ever won by a Wesleyan team, will have a large following in Charleston, not to mention the hundreds that will follow the Morris-Harvey team into Charleston to see them in action against the Methodists from the upper end of the state.

CAROLINA

Christmas Celebration.

Plans for a Christmas celebration are being formed at the present time by the local school and the Sunday school. A community Christmas tree will be one feature of the entertainment. A committee of girls, consisting of Lottie Simmons, Mildred Marston, Elizabeth Bowman and Georgia Carpenter, was recently selected. The purpose of the work of this committee will be to solicit funds to enable the purchase of a gift for each child in the community. The girl who secures the largest fund will receive a prize donated by C. A. Starcher, superintendent of the Sunday school.

Preaching Service.

The Rev. J. B. F. York was present at Carolina Sunday afternoon to conduct the regular preaching service. The twenty-first chapter of John formed the basis of his address.

Personals.

Miss Winnie Simmonds returned here Sunday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Powell of Morgantown, former residents of Carolina. Miss Simmonds was accompanied home by Miss Ethel Powell.

Mrs. Allie Hildreth and son Loren of Mannington were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Heldroff Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Starcher and family spent Sunday at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. W. F. Bridges of Ida May.

STEAMER REPORTED SAFE

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 15.—Fears felt for the safety of the Chilean steamer Ronco when it was reported that she had failed to answer wireless calls following the earthquake of last Saturday were dispelled today when her agents stated that the vessel had departed from Coquimbo and was midway on her voyage to Valparaiso.

BILIOUS CHILDREN

Black-Draught, Long in Successful Use, Praised by an Arkansas Mother, "Soon Does Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Thordford's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says:

"When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble, we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does the work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the faded liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.

In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle, and will often prevent slight illness from developing into serious troubles.

Its well-established merit, during more than 70 years of successful use, should convince you of the helpful effects obtainable by taking Black-Draught for liver and stomach disorders. Get a package today and keep it in your house. See that the package bears the words "Thordford's Black-Draught." NO. 141

JURY TRIALS CONTINUED BECAUSE OF LOUD NOISE

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 15.—After fighting an unequal battle for the past two months against noise, resulting first from the drilling of a deep water well on the courthouse yard, next from a redecorating and repainting of the courthouse and now from the construction of a new county jail, Judge I. G. Lazelle today decided in conference with the bar association to continue all jury trials which were docketed for the October term of the circuit court to the January term. In a trial held yesterday it was necessary at one time for a court attaché to order a steam shovel outside to be silenced for a few minutes to permit Judge Lazelle to hear arguments of counsel.

HEADGEAR WITH EYE GLASSES TO BE USED

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Paraphernalia which will be used in the Columbia-Dartmouth football game next Saturday includes a special headgear of stiff leather fitted with eye glasses.

The wearer of this unique guard will be Ed Fischer, tackle on the Columbia eleven, who lays claim to the distinction of being the only collegiate athlete in the country who engages in the gentle game of football with the assistance of eye glasses. His sight failed greatly last year when he was a star on the freshman team.

The Red Cross Public health nursing service will hold a meeting at the Red Cross room in the courthouse at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon. The arrangement of plans for the sale of Christmas seals will constitute the business of the session. The sale of the little seals for 1 cent each is the only available means of accumulating a sum to be used in the tuberculosis work. All persons interested in assisting the organization in its work have been asked to be present at the meeting this afternoon.
